

To the Officers and Members of the Subordinate Lodges within the Jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge of Tennessee:

If within the length of your cable-tow, please plan to attend a Service of Remembrance for our first Grand Master

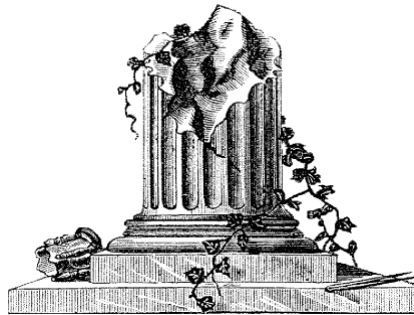

Major Thomas Claiborne, Esq.

As we rededicate a monument for our long departed but not forgotten brother at

Nashville City Cemetery
1001 4th Avenue South

Saturday, May 11, 2019
11:00 am

Hosted by Corinthian Lodge No. VIII and the Nashville City Cemetery Association

All are welcome, Masons are encouraged to bring their own Aprons.

A tour will commence at 10:00 am covering several other prominent early Tennesseans and Masons there at rest.

Parking will be available at the Cemetery.

Masons are also encouraged to wear a sprig of evergreen on their lapel.

At the end of the ceremony, craftsmen will leave their evergreen on our Most Worshipful Brother's grave
With the exclamation "Alas, my brother!"
