Squires of the Round Table

The Order of the Squires of the Round Table was established in 1995 as a pledge for the International Order of DeMolay. The basic organization is called a Manor. Each Squire Manor is sponsored by a DeMolay Chapter and under the control of the Advisory Council of the sponsoring Chapter.

Squires take part in Community Service; Leadership among their peers; run their on meetings; have Fun & Sporting Events; and much, much, more. There are up to six Squire Officers, three are elected by their peers. Elected Officers are Master Squire, Senior Squire, Junior Squire. Appointed Officers are Squire Chaplain, Squire Marshall, and a Squire Recorder. A Dad/Mom Advisor, who is a member of the Chapter Advisor Council, must be present at all Squire meetings and functions. He or she sit on the sidelines, allowing the officers to run their meetings.
